EVOLUTION & FORM CHANGE

Evolution Changes

Pokémon that would normally need to be traded to evolve now have an additional evolution method. As a quick summary, Pokémon that don't need to hold an item when traded will evolve via friendship, while those that do need an item will evolve by levelling up while holding that item. Note that the friendship required for evolution has been lowered to 160 for all friendship evolutions (was 220).

Note that day is 4am to 6pm, night is 6pm to 4am, and dusk is 5pm to 6pm.

All changes are as follows:

As of version 1.3, Totodile, Turtwig, Snivy, Oshawott, Tepig, Rowlet, Popplio and Litten evolve at level 16.

Form Change

Pokémon with manual form changes can change forms as described below:

Deoxys:

Take a Deoxys to Professor Cozmo in Fallarbor Town after returning the Meteorite.

Rotom:

Take a Rotom to Birch's Lab and interact with this pile of boxes:

Furfrou:

Talk to this woman in the Pokémon Fan Club in Slateport:

Oricorio:

Use a Nectar item on it, as you would in the official games. All nectars respawn daily, so there's an unlimited supply of them.

Mega Evolution

To mega evolve a Pokémon, you first need the Mega Bracelet. This is given to you right before you battle Norman – you can't miss it. Then, have your Pokémon hold its mega stone. When you send it into a battle, press START on the move selection screen and then choose a move.

Rayquaza works similarly, but must know Dragon Ascent instead of holding a mega stone. It can learn Dragon Ascent from a move tutor in Meteor Falls.

Primal Reversion is not implemented yet.
